Judy:

I will not be on the call today but regarding item number 5, I would like to know if we want any changes to the way we handled public comments last time.

Jenny and I met with the comment contractor today to discuss the next round of public/peer comments. Important points are:

- The plan is to again have the comments organized by Chapter and Appendix.
- We told them 14 chapters (did not include Chapter 15 since it is references) and 2 Appendices (Appendices I and J).
- We told them 3 comment summaries
- We told them we would be vetting our list of commenter categories with the BB team before we shared it again with the contractor
- We would handle the peer review comments the same way as before also

If folks have any changes let me know ASAP

-Palmer
